

Can Health Care Ever Be a Human Right in the United States?

A Discussion in Honor of Human Rights Day

As the world's richest country why can't we guarantee everyone the right to good health care? Can we ever get to the point where every person here has access to great health care? What practical steps are necessary and possible to move forward in our current political environment? Come hear advocates for reform of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and a Single Payer System present their views and engage in a dialogue about how we, as a country, can move forward.

Free and open to the public

Speakers in favor of Single Payer:

- Gene Bishop, MD — Gene is a Clinical Professor of Medicine at the Perelman School at Penn and retired Associate Director of the Wood Clinic at Pennsylvania Hospital. She is a long time member of Physicians for a National Health Program.
- Tony Spadaro. — Tony is a 4th year MD/MPH student at the Perelman School and works with Students for a National Health Program

Speaker in favor of reforming the ACA:

Allison Hoffman, JD — Allison is faculty at Penn Law School and a fellow at Leonard Davis Institute of Health Economics. Her work focuses on health care policy and law, most notably in regard to the Affordable Healthcare Act (ACA).

Free refreshments and option of a cash bar

Thursday, December 7

Doors open at 5:30, Program begins at 6:15

Ethical Society of Philadelphia

1906 Rittenhouse Square, Phila., 19103

UNAGP

Organized annually by the United Nations Association of Greater Philadelphia
For more information, visit una-gp.com